North Coast Chorale Membership Drive
2009 Fall Season

The North Coast Chorale is recruiting new singers for the fall season; rehearsals begin September 15, 2009. The chorale is affiliated with the Clatsop Community College "Arts and Ideas" program and is a non-profit organization.

Currently, singers are poised and ready to embark on the Chorale's Fall Season under the direction of Dr. Denise Reed-Hinds. Rehearsals are Tuesday night from 6:30 to 9:00 p.m. – beginning September 15, 2009 at the Clatsop Community College's Performing Arts Center (PAC), located on the corner of Franklin and 16th Streets in Astoria. College students may take this class for credits through Clatsop Community College. Community members are asked to pay dues to cover the cost of music.

The Chorale Fall concert is themed 'The Songs of the Angels' and will be presented December 12 & 13, 2009 at the PAC.

Additionally Sunday Nov 29 at 4:00pm, the North Coast Chorale will be hosting a Messiah Sing-a-long at Astoria Christian Church with the proceeds going to support the Clatsop County Food Bank.

Looking forward, the North Coast Chorale is planning a Canadian Tour in August of 2010.
